

Directions to Bluebell Cottage, Standlow

Directions to Standlow Farm, Standlow Lane, Kniveton, DE6 1QZ from the south via M1:

Leave the M1 at junction 23A. Follow the A50 towards Uttoxeter/Alton Towers. At Sudbury, leave the A50 for the A515 and travel for approximately 8 miles until you reach the large roundabout entering Ashbourne. At the large roundabout continue straight on over a mini roundabout, and straight on through a set of traffic lights. At the next set of traffic lights turn left, sign posted Wirksworth B5035. Follow these sign posts to Wirksworth/Carsington Water until you reach Kniveton village. You will travel down a hill into the village. Continue past the Red Lion pub on your left and the church on your right. Pass through Kniveton village and continue straight on, climbing up the hill on the other side. Continue up the hill round a corner, and take the turning on the left where you see the Standlow Farm Holiday Cottages sign. This is Standlow Lane. Continue down the lane and you will see a row of cottages in front of you, with Bluebell Cottage in the middle. If you can pull in front of the cottages to unload and then move the vehicles to the car park, it would be appreciated.

Directions to Standlow Farm, Standlow Lane, Kniveton, DE6 1QZ from the M6:

Leave the M6 at junction 15, following the signs for A50 towards Derby. At Sudbury turn off the A50 onto the A515 Ashbourne and continue for approximately 8 miles until you reach the large roundabout entering Ashbourne. At the large roundabout continue straight on over a mini roundabout and straight on through a set of traffic lights. At the next set of traffic lights turn left, sign posted Wirksworth B5035. Follow these sign posts to Wirksworth/ Carsington Water until you reach Kniveton village. You will travel down a hill into the village, past the Red Lion pub on your left and the church on your right. Pass through Kniveton village and continue straight on, climbing up the hill on the other side. Continue up the hill round a corner, and take the turning on the left that has a sign for Standlow Farm Holiday Cottages. This is Standlow Lane. Continue down the lane and you will see a row of cottages in front of you, with Bluebell Cottage in the middle. If you can pull in front of the cottages to unload and then move the vehicles to the car park, it would be appreciated.